Personal Recordkeeping

One important step into adulthood is the responsibility for keeping your own personal records. These are documents that you will need when applying for a job, college/university, technical school, or even an apartment and more! It's a good idea to keep them together in one safe place so that you will be able to find them easily when you need them.

Disability Action Center - <https://actionctr.org/>

Disability Action Center is a private, non-profit organization founded in 1980 to meet specific needs of people with disabilities living in Northern California. Their staff provides free support to help community members with disabilities achieve and/or maintain their optimal level of self-reliance and independence. They can provide support services such as information, housing assistance, and provider referrals. Their goal is to work with each individual client to eliminate barriers (physical, emotional, societal, etc.) to increase opportunities for participation in the community.

DAC offers services, tools, and support for persons with disabilities ages 14 to 24 and their families who are working through the often-challenging transition time from the school-based service system into young adult independent living. The V.E.S.T program provides information, referral, and guidance with center- and community-based services. Youth may receive training in life skills, education planning, social skills, and job training including the opportunity to qualify for a paid Peer Mentor Internship.

DAC serves Northern California Counties including:
Colusa, Butte, Glenn, Tehama, Plumas, Shasta, Lassen, Siskiyou and Modoc.

California Conservation Corps (CCC)

The California Conservation Corps is a state agency that puts together young people and the environment, to the benefit of both. Corps-members -- young men and women between the ages of 18 and 25 -- sign up for a year of working outdoors to improve California's natural resources. They also assist with emergency response: fighting fires, floods, earthquakes and pest infestations.

The CCC, modeled after the original Civilian Conservation Corps of the 1930s, is the oldest and largest conservation corps now in operation. Created by Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. in 1976, more than 120,000 young people have been a part of the CCC since that time.

Employment Tips

Picking up and Filling out the Application

Be careful, your application may be the first and only impression, and most often determines who will be called for an interview.

- Always print in black or blue ink or type.
- Always read the application (carefully follow directions).
- Answer all questions. If they do not apply to you, write N/A (not applicable).
- Make certain all information is correct.
- Be sure there are no smudges, erasure marks or cross outs on your application.
- Use correct spelling.
- Keep it positive! Never give negative answers. If necessary, you can explain at the interview.

Be sure to know the following information (you may want to have the following data on a card in your wallet).

- A telephone number where you can be reached.
- Names, addresses, and phone numbers of previous employers.
- Positions you held at each job, dates you worked, and wages paid.
- Schools you attended and the locations and dates you attended.
- Social Security Number.

References: A professional reference is a reference from a person who can guarantee your qualifications for a job. A professional reference is typically a former employer or co-worker, a supervisor or someone else who can recommend you for employment (not a family member). Use business people, former teachers, counselors, employers. Know full names, current addresses, titles, and phone numbers. Inform the people you will be listing as references that they may be contacted.

Before the Interview

*The interview is the most important step in obtaining a job. Be Prepared!!

- Know yourself. What are your interests and qualifications? Be prepared to talk about them in the interview.
- What work have you done?
- How did you do it?
- Did you use any special tools or equipment?
- Have you done any volunteer work for a community organization at school or at home?
- Do you have hobbies that might help you on your job?
- Have you prepared copies of your resume?
- Know something about the company before going into the interview. This will help you provide information during the interview on how you can benefit the employer.
- Check your personal appearance before you leave for the interview. Dress for success.

Check for:

- Good hygiene (shower)
- Brushed teeth
- Deodorant
- Clean/cut Nails
- Combed Hair
- Clean Clothes
- Appropriate Shoes

What not to wear:

- Baggy Clothing
- Heavy smelling perfume/cologne/aftershave/lotion
- Hats or Caps
- Sunglasses
- Sportswear
- Bulky Coats
- Heavy Make-up
- Revealing Clothes
- Excessive Jewelry
- Beach Apparel

How to Dress for an Interview (male)

DO

DON'T

How to Dress for an Interview (female)

Interview outfits

DO

DON'T

Business casual

This interview look would be appropriate for these industries: IT, startups, teaching, entry-level government positions, environmental engineering, aerospace (non-management), architecture, health-care/life-sciences research, social media, advertising/PR and retail.

Detail adds interest but doesn't distract

Sweater and pants fit well

Casual, yet polished

Pants are appropriate length for heels

Business professional

This more formal interview look works for these industries: health-care management and sales, hospital administration, biotechnology, banking, personal financial services, academic administration, hospitality, pharmaceutical sales and aerospace management.

Blouse color, collar style go well with the suit

Minimal jewelry

Jacket not too short, not too long

Tip: Check yourself in the mirror before leaving the house

Could wear heels rather than flats to increase formality

nwjobs.com

Necklace too large

Tip: Avoid any bright or patterned clothing that may be distracting

Too tight

Cotton capris: too casual

Too informal; this would be a better outfit for shopping at Pike Place Market (with different shoes)

Meet the experts

Local career experts Lisa Quast, CEO of Career Woman, Inc., and Josh Warborg, district president of Robert Half International, provided critiques of these outfits.

"Appropriate attire depends on the industry and company in which you will be interviewing, the geographic location and time of year."

Quast

"Suits in conservative colors, such as black, gray or navy, paired with light, solid-colored shirts are a safe choice."

Quick Review: Interview Tips

- Go to the interview ALONE.
- Leave your cell phone on silent, in your car, or at home.
- Smile, be courteous.
- Shake hands to introduce yourself
- Speak clearly.
- Make eye contact.
- Be enthusiastic.
- Practice good posture.
- Stay alert.

At the Interview

- Get to the interview a few minutes early; let the receptionist know who you are and whom you wish to see.
- Have your resume with you to give to the interviewer.
- Shake hands firmly (if offered).
- Keep answers brief and to the point.
- Be prepared to give examples of skills and job experience (extracurricular activities at school, such as sports, clubs, and any school or class offices you held).
- Avoid discussing personal problems.
- ASK QUESTIONS
- Request interviewer's business card.
- Thank the interviewer for his or her time before leaving.

The interview is over when:

- Interviewer allows time for your questions.
- Interviewer thanks you for your time.
- Interviewer stands.

Examples of appropriate questions:

- When will you be making your decision?
- May I contact you in a few days?
- May I ask about the dress code?
- Is this a new position? How long has the position existed?
- What do you like about working for this company?
- Describe the work environment?
- Describe the typical responsibilities of the position.
- What are the most challenging aspects of the position?
- Describe the opportunities for training and professional development.
- Will I receive any formal training?
- Are there opportunities for advancement within the organization?
- When can I expect to hear from you?

FOLLOW-UP

- Send thank you notes within three days.
- Check your mail and messages for a response.
- If you are unable to be near a phone, arrange for your messages to be taken.

Tips on Keeping Your Job

- Start on time every day
- Learn the rules and obey them
- You worked hard to get the job, work hard to keep it
- Learn about the company, not just your job.
- Get along with others.
- Beware of gossip and don't spread rumors.
- Respect all others.
- Be loyal, honest and trustworthy.
- Be responsible and take pride in our work.
- Communicate concerns with your supervisor.

When Changing Jobs

Remember:

- Give at least 2 weeks notice that you will be quitting.
- Give notice in person, not over the phone.
- Give a letter of resignation.
- Ask your boss for a letter of recommendation.
- Thank your boss for helping you learn the job.
- Thank co-workers for their help.
- Leave in a positive way, you may have to use them for a reference or you may decide to go back to that job again.
